Rev. March 2017

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA
UNITED STATES V. KEVIN SALISBURY, 2:12CR00010

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR EMERGENCY WARRANT
August 13, 2022

On April 7, 2015, Salisbury was sentenced to 35 months custody, followed by three years of supervised release for committing the offense of Possession of a Firearm by a Convicted Felon. Supervised release commenced on May 3, 2022.

On July 25, 2022, Salisbury's supervised release was revoked, and he was sentenced to 30 days custody, followed by 35 months of supervised release for the violation of Failure to Report. His second term of supervised release commenced on August 11, 2022.

On August 11, 2022, Salisbury reported to the United States Probation Office after his release from custody; but only after the undersigned officer contacted him and asked him to report. Upon reporting to the United States Probation Office, Salisbury refused to complete his intake paperwork. Additionally, he refused to sign any releases of information or conditions without his counsel present. Salisbury further stated he would not participate with any stipulations of supervised release, which included participating in any programs.

It was explained to Salisbury that refusal to sign his releases of information or his Judgement and conditions is considered a violation. Salisbury still refused to sign any paperwork without counsel present and left without completing his intake process.

The Federal Public Defenders Office has recused themselves from this case; therefore, Salisbury does not have counsel to be present in order for him to complete his supervised release intake.

Salisbury was subsequently directed to reside at the Thriving Warriors facility located in Pahrump, NV. On August 13, 2022, the undersigned officer received several incomprehensible text messages from Salisbury referencing his leaving the facility. The undersigned officer contacted Salisbury to get clarification on his text messages. Salisbury advised he left Thriving Warriors in the middle of the night to go to Walmart to buy energy drinks and food. He said police were called upon his arrival back at the facility. Salisbury continued to reference a forklift that he "borrowed" and advised that is why he cannot return to Thriving Warriors. He advised he was somewhere in the desert but could not provide his location. The undersigned officer contacted the director of Thriving Warriors to get more information. The director advised Salisbury left after curfew and came back driving a stolen sky lift. The police were called, and Salisbury fled on foot with the keys to the sky lift.

Additionally, the director of the program advised Salisbury threatened to kill him via text message. He sent the text message to the undersigned officer which read "we are going to kill you ef,...".

RE: Kevin Salisbury

Prob12C
D/NV Form
Rev. March 2017

The undersigned officer contacted Salisbury who advised he was still in the desert and does not know where he was. He continued to reference "borrowing" the "forklift" but would not advise where he obtained it from. During the conversation Salisbury would transition from being belligerent to being calm.

Later in the day, Nye County Sheriff's office was contacted in reference to a trespassing call. An individual was observed on private property looking into a home through the windows. The property owner called the Nye County Sheriff's Office and reported the incident, but the individual fled on foot. The suspect was contacted at a nearby gas station and was detained for trespassing. The suspect gave the name of Doc Severson; however, that name came back with no matches. The individual was later identified as Kevin Salisbury and was arrested on the above charges.

It should be noted that Salisbury is on his second term of supervised release. He immediately absconded upon his first term and obtained charges for violating protection orders and stalking. Salisbury has a repeated history of violent/stalking behavior towards women. It is believed that he suffers from a mental health disease; however, this cannot be confirmed due to his unwillingness to participate in psychological evaluations. He has proven to be a risk of flight and a risk of danger to the community time and time again.

Therefore, it is respectfully requested an emergency warrant be issued to secure his appearance for a revocation hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

Brianna
